Miss Representation – April 19 – Movie Screening Tonight

Tonight at 7 in the auditorium there will be a screening of the film Miss Representation, sponsored by the Feminism Matters Club. It is a film that addresses how mainstream media contributes to the underrepresentation of women in society, as women are portrayed for their youth, beauty and sexuality. It also addresses the startling high number of females who suffer from eating disorders. All are welcome to attend. Below is the link for the film.
