SHS PARENT ASSOCIATION MINI BULLETIN

September 1, 2012

You should have received an email from school on August 31 with information as to the first day schedule. If you did NOT received it (the from address is "alert now..." and the subject line is "Opening Day at SHS"), you should contact the school to ensure that you are on their email distribution list.

Please note that these emails are sent by the Parent Association, and while the school and we attempt to share our distribution lists with each other – there are some emails that appear on one list but not the other.

Below is the text from the AlertNow email that was sent by SHS on Friday.

This is an email reminder that school begins in the School District of Shorewood on Tuesday, September 4th. A complete Shorewood High School Opening Day Schedule was included in the July Parent Newsletter.
